

About us

For over 30 years, SafePlace advocates have offered safety and support to survivors of both sexual and domestic violence. This work makes it possible for thousands of individuals to begin the healing process.

Our mission

SafePlace strives to put an end to sexual and domestic violence and advocate for personal and societal change through crisis intervention and education.

The agency was established as a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization in October 1981.

What SafePlace clients are saying

Thank you for helping me when there was no one.

I found community,
I found friendship,
I found the strength
to move ahead.
This has been not only vital to my life, but to the lives of my children.

SafePlace helped me go from pieces to Peace.

I didn't know there was help for this.
This is the best day of my life.

I want to help create freedom from violence

You may think your gift is just a small token,
but it is saying, somebody has your back.

I am there with you,
I am proud of what you are doing.
That's what this gives us.

Unity Hands

The women in SafePlace's support groups each contributed their own hands and artistic expression in the making of this art.

'Unity Hands' serves as a reminder of how community lifts people up.
